JUDGMENT

Petitioner availed a loan which is not repaid. Loan was availed in the year 1996. It is pointed out by the learned counsel for the respondent-Bank that twice the petitioner was called upon to pay the amount availing the benefit of one time settlement scheme, but he did not do so. Counsel for the petitioner points out that petitioner is an Ex-serviceman who is disabled. Now petitioner is having funds to effect payment and some breathing time may be given and a statement of accounts due from the petitioner may be given to the petitioner, it is submitted.

The writ petition is disposed of as follows:

The first respondent will serve a statement on the petitioner within two weeks from today showing the exact amount due with interest payable by the petitioner including the interest payable by the petitioner on the basis that petitioner is being given one month's time from the date of service of the statement. Petitioner is given one month's time from the date of service of the statement as aforesaid to effect payment. If the petitioner does not effect the payment, it is perfectly open to the respondents to proceed against the petitioner in accordance with law.

(K.M.JOSEPH, JUDGE)
